

Volunteer Rules and Regulations Chart

By clicking on "I agree" you hereby are obliged to abide by the following terms and conditions:

1. Registration

- a) Registration is arbitrary and no one can be registered as volunteers without their will.
- b) After filling form, your profile will be discussed among the volunteers and you'll be registered only if you do not get more than half member's objection on your profile.
- c) The trust shall thereby hold all rights to confirm your registration.

2. Responsibilities

- a) To actively participate in the social activities conducted by the Trust.
- b) To share posts/stories on various platforms and make people aware of Trust's activities.
- c) To be in touch with the members and notify about your absence for an event.
- d) To promptly share your ideas of social activities in the WhatsApp group or via other medium.

3. Removal/Resignation

- a) You have to formally write to the President of the Trust in case of resignation. If you abandon the events and fail to participate, the Trust will deem you "Inappropriate" and take steps as to blacklist you from volunteering and any kind of activity related to the Trust.
- b) The following reasons also can force the trust to remove you as a volunteer:
 - i. If you perform any kind of activity against the interest of the Trust.
 - ii. If you're highly inactive in the Trust's activities.
 - iii. If you do any criminal activity and are punishable by law.
 - iv. If you're suspected to have performed any anti-Trust activity.
- c) Procedure for removal: The Trust members will discuss your case in the meeting. You'll be removed, if more than half members agree with your removal. The Trust may or may not opt to listen to your petition.

4. Others

- a) You will be added to a WhatsApp group post approval.
- b) The Trust holds the right to send you transactional text messages like OTP, information, to your registered mobile number. Also, to send you emails at your registered email-id.
- c) The Trust holds the right to add/delete/modify the terms and conditions and it is your prior responsibility to be in touch with the terms and conditions.

President,
Breeze Charitable Trust.

Last Updated: 22/05/2019

BREEZE CHARITABLE TRUST

PRESIDENT

SECRETARY